BEST PRACTICE II

1. TITLE: IMBIBE RESEARCH CULTURE IN THE CAMPUS

2) Goals:

1. To inculcate research culture among the teachers and students
2. To get more projects from the different funding agencies.
3. To maintain the data of the college activities through the magazine.

3) The Context:

In the higher education, research has got the prime significance in the policy of Govt. of India. The college has taken initiative in this direction to imbibe the research culture among the teachers and students. The college has created a platform for research talents among the students. The college organizes academic and other activities regularly. To publicize these activities, the college has started its own news i.e Aksharyatra and Pankaj magazine and the college organizes seminar and conference every year.

4) The Practice: The college has Aksharyatra for students since the beginning of the college. Students write their own poetry and it is pasted in the Aksharyatra. The college also publishes Pankaj Magazine every year. There is an Editorial Board for the magazine, which works under the chairmanship of the Principal. The Editorial Board incorporates the experts from various areas. The students are encouraged to write poems and other articles. The teachers are also encouraged to write research articles in reputed journals. More than 90 percent teachers are doing Ph.D in their own subject and the teachers are also motivated to apply for research projects.

5) Evidence of Success: It is noticed that due to the Aksharyatra and Pankaj Magazine the research culture among the students is boosted. The VCRMS projects are undertaken by the faculties is increased considerably. Two of our faculty is awarded Ph.d degree and two of our faculty submitted their thesis. Teachers published 38 research papers in reputed journals during the academic year 2017-18. During the last five years, the faculty members of the college have undertaken 06 VCRMS research projects with the total outlay of Rs. 2.39 lac. The number of research articles presented in the national/ international seminars/conferences has been increased. The teachers are also participated in Avishkar Research Competition.

6) Problems Encountered and Resources Required: In the initial stage of the publication of the journal, there was no adequate number of research articles for publication. But due to the consistency in publication, there is good response from the researchers.

The resources required for the publications are availability of the research articles, the Peers, finance, and human resources.
